TRIED & TESTED: FRENCHTROTTERS PARIS

October 18th, 2012

Most striking feature:

First there was a FrenchTrotters for women only, then there was a FrenchTrotters for kids, followed by a FrenchTrotters for men. Now those two first stores still exist, but the third one closed to make room for a flagship store. On two floors you'll find everything: menswear, stationary, shoes, furniture and women's clothes. If you ask me, there's only one store you need to visit when you're in Paris: and that's this one. To buy a warm cardigan for your boyfriend or a striped pullover for yourself. They stock brands like Acne, American Vintage, Jerome Dreyfuss, Our Legacy and Malin+Goetz. And there's their own brand, FrenchTrotters. With beautiful coats, dresses and scarfs for women and cardigans and sweaters for men. Take your time to discover the world of FrenchTrotters to become a fashionable Parisian when you walk out of their store.
