

LIQUID SPACE

LIQUID SPACE is an interactive living cocoon that physically adapts to the sounds and motions of its visitors.

LIQUID SPACE is a series of sculptures which researches interactive architecture. Space cannot be only statically defined by walls and windows, but should interact with the presence of its visitors. The first version was Roosegaarde's graduation project at the fine art academy AKI in Enschede and evolved into more liquid versions.

<https://www.studioroosegaarde.net/project/liquid-space>

