

Pattern

Studio Profile, December 2017

With a portfolio spanning interior architecture, residential design, set and production design, Pattern are a dynamic emerging Australian design practice. Having worked for local and international clients across the retail, fashion event production and residential design sectors, this studio has brought a fresh perspective to numerous projects. Spearheaded by designers Josh Cain and Lily Goodwin, Pattern are an energetic and progressive team who strive to deliver refined, considered, and sensitive design outcomes of the highest standard. Pattern are currently based in Byron Bay.

Photograph
Terence Chin