

M+ Admission and Visitor Information

Free Admission for first 12 Months All visitors will enjoy free admission to M+ exhibitions in the first twelve months after the opening date, which is 12 November 2021. Special exhibitions and events as well as cinema screenings may require separate paid tickets.

Privilege for M+ Members and Patrons M+ Members and Patrons enjoy unlimited year-round access to the museum and hence reservation for admission is not required. They can present their membership cards upon entry to the museum building and access the museum through designated lanes.

Opening Hours Tuesday to Thursday, Saturdays, Sundays, and public holidays: 10am – 6pm
Fridays: 10am – 10pm

M+ is closed on the first day of January, the first and second days of Lunar New Year, and Christmas Day.

Last entry to the M+ galleries is 30 minutes before closing.

Bulky personal belongings

Backpacks and suitcases must be stored in the cloakroom on B1 floor or lockers on B1 and G floor. It is recommended that visitors store bulky items during their visit to the galleries.

Online Reservation Service

Reservations for M+ admission in the first two weeks (12 - 28 November) can be made on a new platform via the West Kowloon website, M+ website, or through the 'West Kowloon Cultural District' mobile application.

In anticipation of a large number of visitors during the initial period after the opening, M+ strongly recommends all visitors make reservations ahead of their visits and arrive at the museum within their designated timeslot. Visitors may have to wait before entry to the museum and its galleries during peak hours. Walk-in visits may be possible but will be subject to availability. Children aged six or below accompanied by registered visitors do not require reservation. Visitors who have registered for M+ opening programmes are not required to make separate reservations for museum admission: they can present their programme confirmation email upon entry to the M+ building.
