

Set in Shanghai, amidst a flourishing forest of ancient camphor trees, stands Amanyangyun, a picturesque retreat embodying the essence of Chinese spirituality, introspection and beauty. At its heart lies twenty six re-mastered Ming and Qing Dynasty houses which, with the trees, have been carefully moved brick-by-brick from the legendary region of Fuzhou in Jiangxi Province.

Location

- Maqiao town, Shanghai
- In close proximity to Qizhong Golf Course, Qizhong Forrest Sports City Arena and Qizhong Forest Park

- The nearest airport is Shanghai Hongqiao International Airport, which lies 24 kilometres north of Amanyangyun or a 20 minute drive; Shanghai Pudong International Airport is 55 kilometres east of Amanyangyun or a one hour drive

Points of Interest

- Amanyangyun is easy to reach through all modes of transportation and only 40 minutes' drive from the centre of Shanghai

A magnificent tribute to one of China's most historic areas, Amanyangyun is the culmination of years of careful restoration and conservation efforts by preservation experts and designers. The resort safeguards priceless natural and cultural treasures, giving a new life to antique houses and an ancient forest, a feat that stands to make Amanyangyun one of the rarest luxury opportunities in the world.

Aman Residences

Amanyangyun includes a number of residences offered for private sale globally. The 12 antique residences and 18 new residences have been designed and constructed with the same meticulous attention to detail as the resort. In addition to the amenities of the resort, each private residence includes a large flexible multi-purpose level which has been designed to include a state-of-the-art gallery, cinema, gym, tea-room and wine cellar.
