

ITALY'S FIRST
MOUNTAIN LODGE
A UNIQUE EXPERIENCE
AT THE FOOT OF MONTE BIANCO.

FEEL THE GIANT.
CELEBRATE YOURSELF.

eat. sleep. ride. après-ski. repeat.

Once upon a time high-altitude refuges existed, but then Super G, Italy's first mountain lodge, arrived and everything changed. Far and away from being just another "place to rest", Super G is a where people meet to enjoy life and the magic of the mountain to the fullest, pampered by a charming structure situated on Courmayeur's slopes and surrounded by Monte Bianco's majestic massif. Here, we're at the back of Europe's giant, ready to challenge its slopes or simply admire its greatness.

Super G was reborn in its current form in 2013 from a pre-existing hotel structure in Plan Chécrouit above Courmayeur. Long-time friends Andrea Bacchini, Brand and Creative Advisor, and Giacomo Sonzini, Investment Manager, decided to purchase the property to recreate the magic of the mountain lodges discovered in Canada, but with added Italian flair. The concept? Eat like a king and sleep delightfully at the very foot of the slopes surrounded by snow. Just a few weeks ago, in December 2015, Super G opened its doors with a completely refurbished look that sets high standards. Eight rooms (two suites and six giant rooms) are available to guests who wish dedicated every moment of the day to their wellbeing. The location is simply unique in the world and features spectacular terraces for face-to-face aperitifs with Monte Bianco. Other features not to be missed include the well-equipped gym & wellness area, which includes a polychromatic sauna, deckchairs, reaction showers, and herbal tea corner.

Gourmands will be able to satisfy their superior palates at the refined champagne bar & restaurant, or the sandwich bar for a quick but equally appetising bite. The most discerning guests will enjoy the numerous 24 hour services, which include a personal skier, babysitter, chauffeur and personal trainer. Everything has been designed to the finest details to allow visitors to live every second in a fully relaxing environment. The season's full calendar of events, dj sets, themed evenings and original après-ski experience—which will get you dancing from the early hours of the afternoon!—guarantees that guests will also have a lot of fun.

FEEL THE GIANT.
CELEBRATE YOURSELF.

Two mottos beat the time at Super G:

And our formula is simple, but very effective:

eat. sleep. ride. après-ski. repeat.

Here's how:

eat.

CHAMPAGNE BAR & RESTAURANT

If you believe that food is an essential pleasure, you should take a seat at the champagne bar and restaurant where a creative and refined à la carte menu is waiting for you. Offering a rich selection of appetisers, pasta dishes, main courses, sides and desserts, the menu is designed to take you away—for just a second!— from the ski slopes, only to bring you back with a warm, pleasant feeling and a great sense of wonder. This is much more than a high-level restaurant, it's the height of restoration. Super G offers guests the opportunity to sample a unique universe of flavours directly on the snow. The restaurant seats 180 people in a relaxing atmosphere with live acoustic background music.

Amongst the not-to-be-missed appetisers we have “Il tagliere del Maestro” a selection of cheeses and cured meats from the mountains; Burrata served with seared artichokes, garlic, pennyroyal, en confit cherry tomatoes and citrus zests; and Che Spigola! bass carpaccio with white tomato petals. Pasta dishes and soups include: La Zuppa del Gigante a casserole-cooked bean and legumes soup in a soft egg-white crust; the Raviolo De Filippis, veil-thin fresh egg pasta made with burnt wheat and filled with Acquerello Risotto, chestnuts and sausage and served with Parmigiano Reggiano cheese. Among the mains to be tried are all the different variations of God save the Polenta, served with octopus, deer, or porcini mushrooms. Other cult dishes include the Una valdostana così la mangi solo al Super G, regional speciality grilled veal in ham crust with crunchy fontina cheese and polenta cubes, and Uno Stinco di Santo! low temperature cooked pork shank served with wasabi flavoured potato mash and light vegetable caponata. Children will be able to enjoy smaller portions from The Seven Dwarves menu. Desserts are homemade and delicious and include Chocolate Triathlon, XXL Tiramisù and One, Two, Three... Cheeese!

The average per person expense is €50 per person, wine and beverages excluded.

The evening is dedicated to a culinary experience reserved to a select few connoisseurs in the new “Elite Room.” On the menu: Tonno al Cubo a soy sauce marinated tuna tartare; L'Osso è Buco, ossobuco on saffron-yellow Acquerello risotto; and The Fish, a bouquet of bass and vegetables in saffron broth. Dishes go for 20 to 32 euro.

The wine list favours Italian excellence, with bottles ranging from 25 to 200 euro. Top wineries represented include: Les Crêtes, Ermes Pavese, Maison Anselmet, Pietro Rinaldi, Travaglini, Tenute dell'Ornellaia, Tenuta San Guido, Arnaldo Caprai, Tenute Lunelli, Frescobaldi, and Argiolas.

Bubbles from Cantine Ferrari deserve their own wine list, the Ferrari Taste Experience, with over fifteen options between bottles and glasses. Champagnes are also deserving of their own list, which features Veuve Clicquot flutes at 13 to 15 euro and bottles from Maisons such as Moët et Chandon, Ruinart, Krug e Dom Pérignon, with prices ranging from 78 to 390 euro.

APERITIF AND TASTING TERRACE

The real meeting point between Monte Bianco and Super G are its terraces. Unique on the slopes for their size, and completely exposed to the sun, the terraces are a meeting place for those looking for comfort and the opportunity to taste the excellent cured meats and cheeses that are only found in the surrounding valleys. The terraces have a ritual involving a chalice of metodo classico with two small ice cubes: place the ice in your mouth, wait for it to melt, and then sip the wine for a taste that is only possible at these high altitudes.

SANDWICH BAR

If you're in tune with your fun&spunk side, and can't resist going down the slopes a few extra times, then the sandwich bar is the place for you. Boasting the best service in the valley, the bar offer bagels and gourmet sandwiches, artisanal beers and cocktails; it is a place that can surprise and delight even the best freeriders. There are two experiences at the sandwich bar, the external one—spartan but efficient— is highlighted by the french fries kiosk; while the internal one features a designer bar, tables and screens.

GIANTS ROOMS/SUITES

Sleeping here is a dream. But waking up is even more so, with the Giant watching and protecting you as you enjoy the comfort of its silences and the safety of its heights before others come to share the mountain with you. Eight rooms, of which 2 “suites” and 6 “giant rooms”, inspired by the giants of history and those that climbed them and made a difference. The treated woods, the books, the scents, and the music make these rooms havens for relaxation after a day skiing down the combed and immaculate slopes. The Lodge is a microcosm on the top of the world that is devoted to the well-being of each guest in every moment of the day.

ON DEMAND

There are six services available to guests twenty-four hours a day.

Chauffeur - Personal Trainer - Babysitter - Personal Skier - Ski Teacher

KIDS AREA

This is the space that gives you space and the means to enjoy the times spent at the restaurant and indulge in all the ways we take care of you. In collaboration with Dea Kids, this is a fun and enjoyable play room for children. Here, children have a place, a world, a moment where they can be kids 100% and find games, TV programs, and an experienced entertainer from 10.00 am to 5.00 pm. When outdoors in the snow, any game immediately becomes a creative adventure (outdoor play takes place without the entertainer). So, who wants to play?

GYM, WELLNESS & BEAUTY

Super in everything, including relaxation: a treadmill looking out to the valley, a hot stone massage, a personal trainer to boost your energy, and a chalice of champagne. All of this in the same place that is just large enough to guarantee your privacy. Training begins in the rooms with the exercise sheets found on the tablets, or directly in the gym area that opens at 7.00 am. The wellness areas (available from 9:00am to 8.00pm) was designed as a couple's experience and features a polychromatic sauna, deckchairs, reaction showers, and herbal tea corner. Treatments, rituals, and products are available to both guests of the lodge and visitors, and are specifically dedicated to those to whom skiing and snowboarding are sports to be lived to the max.

SPORT AND WEATHER INFORMATION

There are two skiing schools in front of the lodge, and those staying there will be the first to wake up in heaven and fly down the freshly packed slopes, but also the last to leave them. An “always on” webcam will tell you if it’s the right day to indulge or rest.

DRINK’N’DANCE

As for everything else, Super G doesn’t follow any well-trod slopes when holding events, and a new entertainment model is being established, featuring a rich calendar of events filled with only the right kind of music.

The beats will be with you everywhere, but the height is reached during Courmayeur’s only apres-ski. Starting at 14:30, a DJ set plays to the mountain, before being joined by a vocalist amidst champagne flutes, beers, cocktails and dancing Ibiza-style, but at 2000 meters above sea level.

Besides the season opening and closing parties, four guest DJs will play at the Super G terraces. A New Years Eve to be remembered and three themed parties will set the tone for the key moments of the season.
