

Royal College of Art
Postgraduate Art & Design

RCA2022

The Royal College of Art's renowned graduate show will take place this year from 25 to 30 June, across two locations including, for the first time, the major new RCA campus building in Battersea, designed by Herzog & de Meuron.

RCA2022 welcomes visitors to experience the best emerging practices from the graduating students of the world's leading university of art and design. Comprising a range of disciplines including Sculpture and Contemporary Art Practice, Intelligent Mobility, Textiles and Design Products, Fashion and Architecture, and many more, this year's presentation will bring together hundreds of postgraduate students whose work is tackling some of the most pressing, global challenges of our times, alongside fine art that inspires and nourishes our view of the world.

The RCA exhibitions are free and are open to the public from 10am to 6pm every day, except 27 June.

RCA2020

RCA2020 celebrates the work of the Royal College of Art class of 2020, showcasing their creations in a physical exhibition at the iconic Bargehouse - OXO Tower Wharf.

Gathering work by the world's most exciting emerging artists and designers, a number of alumni will show more recent pieces which represent the evolution of their practice since graduating.

Work by alumni from the Schools of Architecture and Design will be exhibited across the last two weekends in May.

A second exhibition showcasing works from the Schools of Arts & Humanities and Communication runs over the first two weekends in June.

Both RCA2020 exhibitions are open to the public and free to attend.
