

Ground expanse limited.

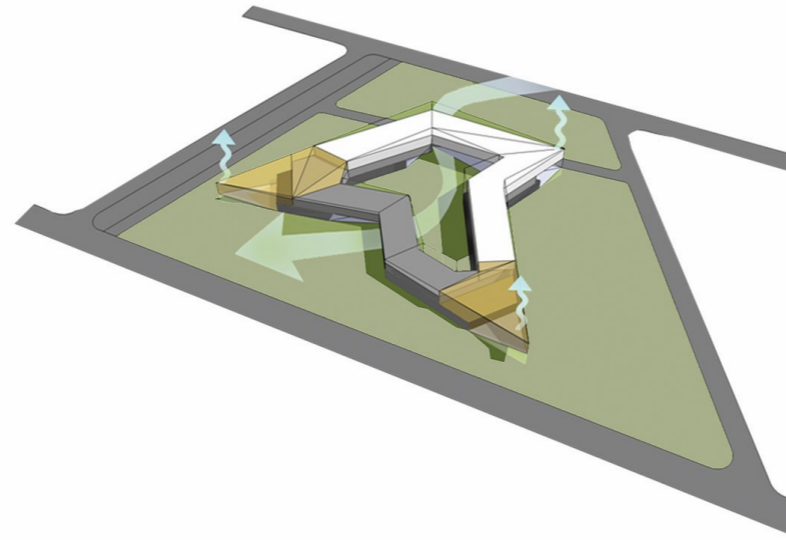

A courtyard volume carved out in the center to house a large landscaped courtyard.

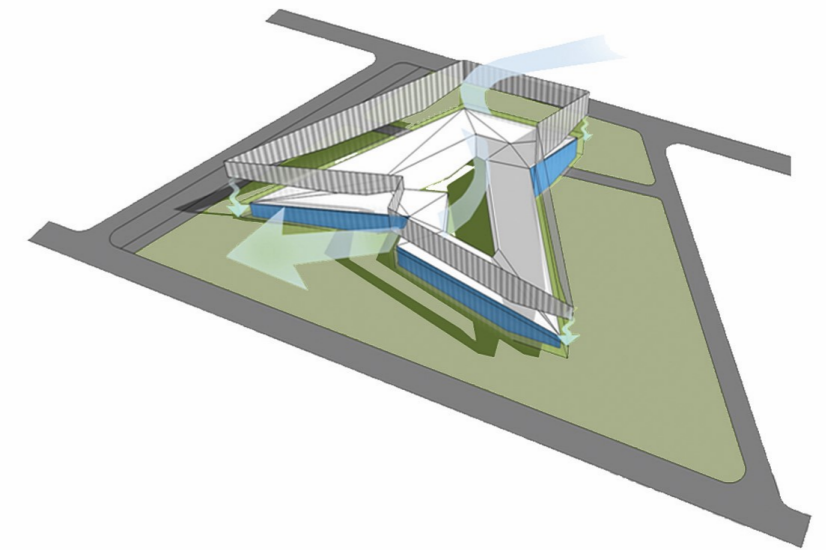

The building shape generates its longest sides oriented towards the north

Linear office space twisted organically in plan.

Built volume lifted from the ground at the southwest and northeast sides to facilitate south westerly breeze through the courtyard.

Louvers on faces directing the internal spaces northwards thus allowing indirect light throughout the day into all the internal spaces, rendering the building energy efficient.

DESIGN PROCESS