

Warner Music

La musica ritorna negli spazi originari di un sotterraneo metropolitano, in un garage di cemento.

Il suono, in una scatola nera di legno e di metallo.

E poi la stanza del sogno e della visione.

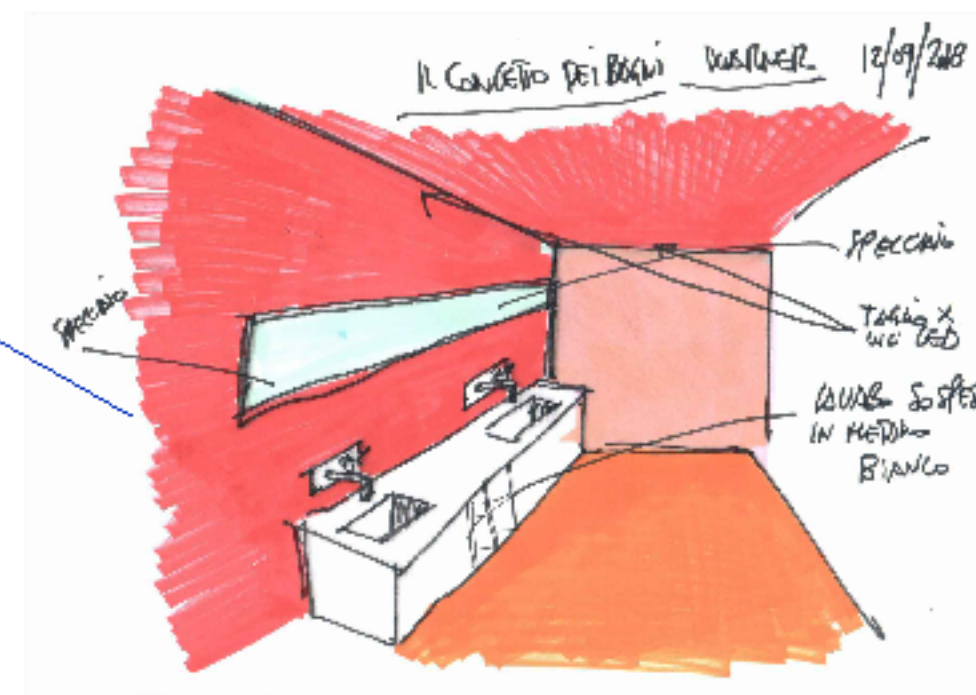

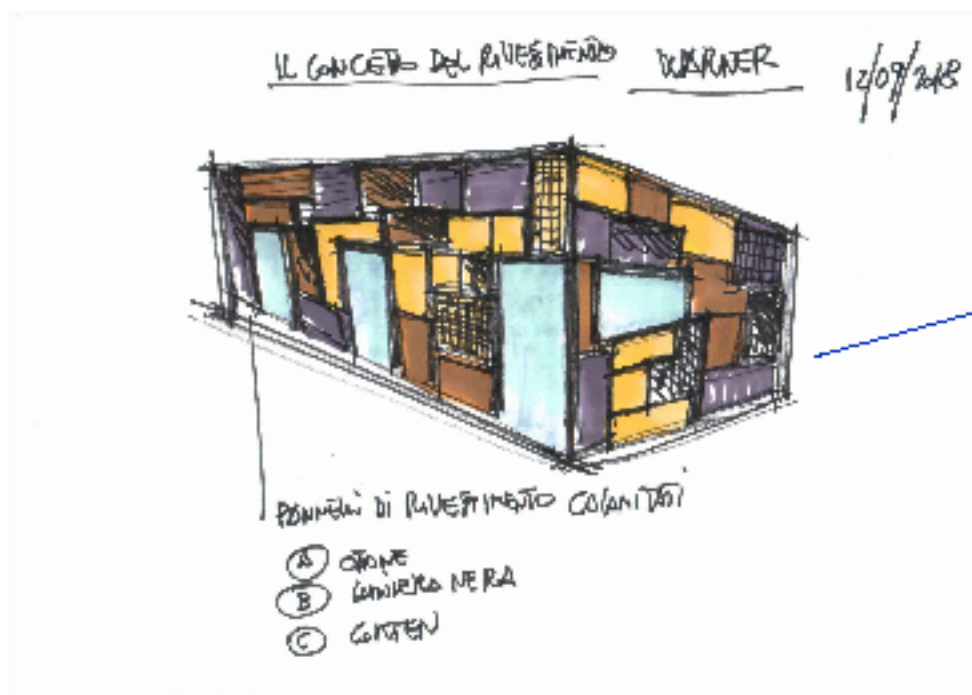

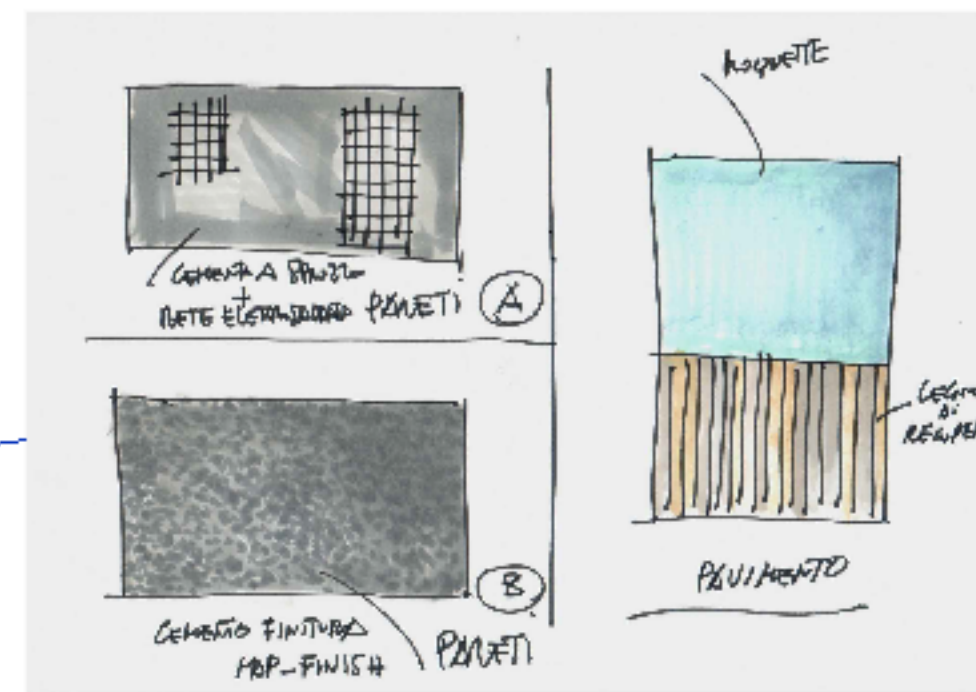

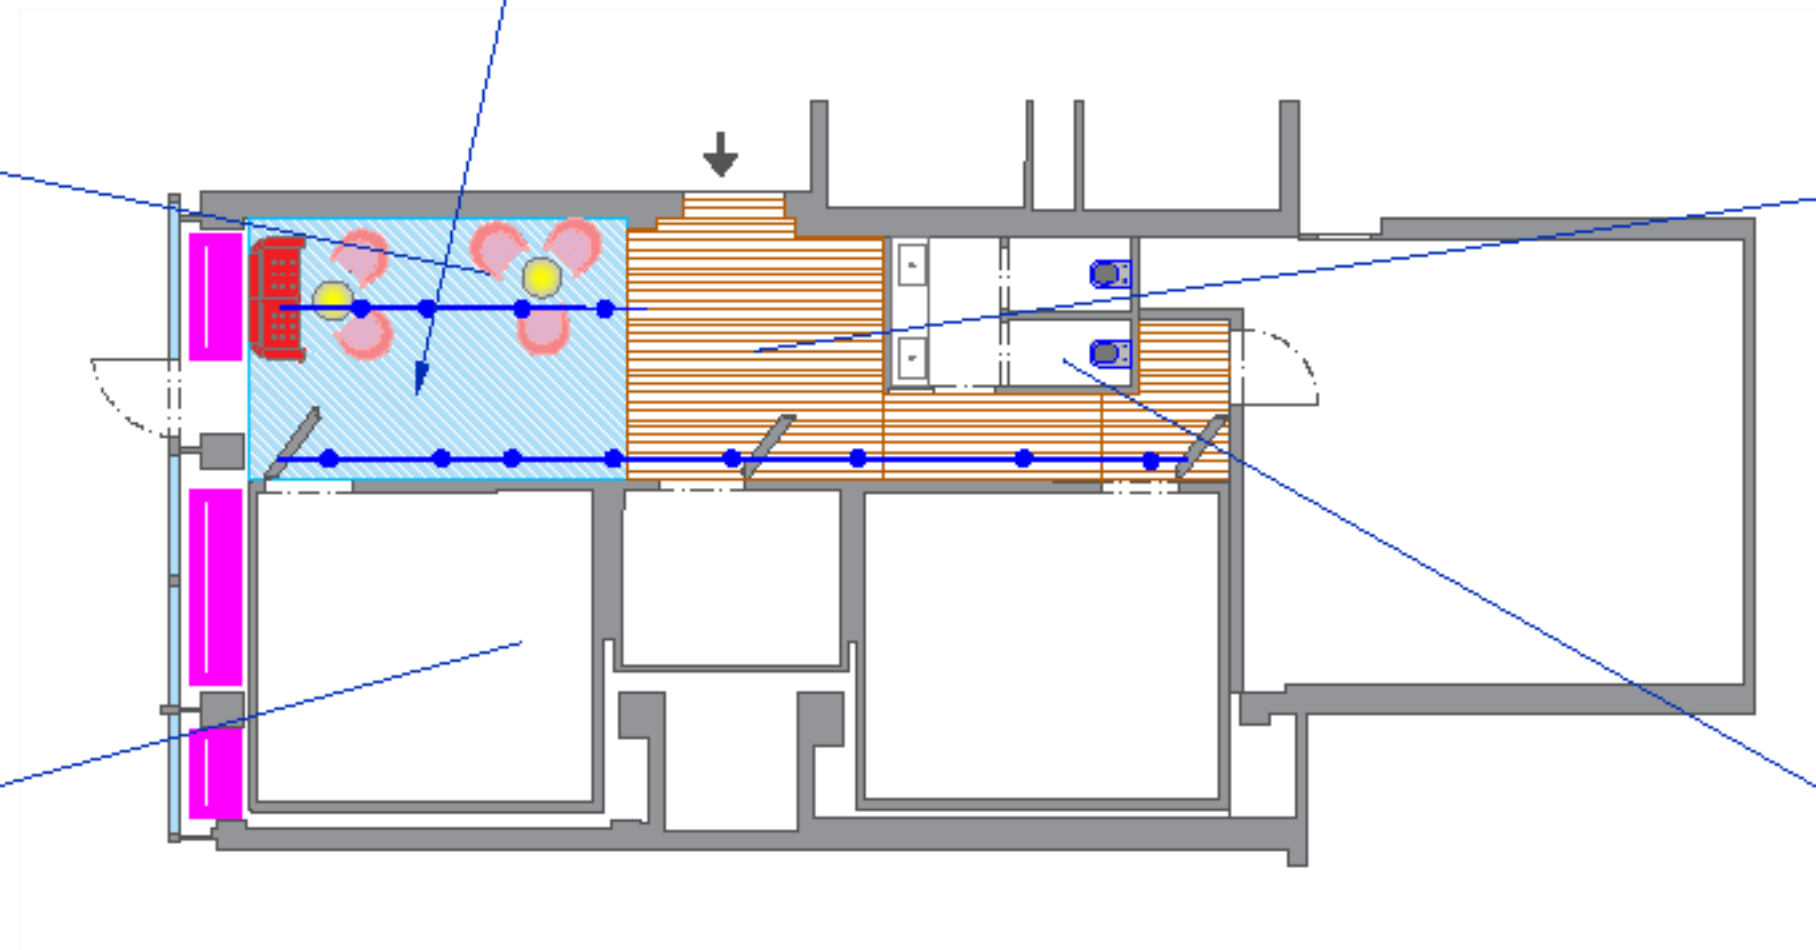

E' un fotogramma di luce d'ottone e di polveri di rosa e di azzurro pastello tra i divani e il pavimento.

Non c'è produzione musicale senza immaginazione.
