

Infinity Tower Facts

1. Infinity Tower is 307 meters high; it is the tallest twisted tower in the world.
2. Each floor of Infinity Tower is rotated by 1.2 degrees to achieve the full 90° spiral, creating the shape of a helix.
3. Seven high-speed lifts (8/m per second) are installed to accommodate residents of this 307-meter high-rise tower.
4. The 75-storey Tower houses 495 apartments.
5. The total steel reinforcement grade of Infinity Tower is 25,000 tons.
6. Infinity Tower includes 6 underground basements.
7. The depth of excavation of Infinity Tower is 27 meters.
8. The Tower's site area is 3,161 m².
9. The Tower's built-up area is 92,000 m².

Company Profile

Cayan's mission is to identify, develop, deliver and manage world-class real estate projects while maximizing strategic relationships and innovation to add value to investors, customers, employees and partners with a vision to be the number one developer of the most remarkable real estate projects.

Cayan projects, estimated to be worth around SAR 10 billion, cover a wide spectrum of developments; from exclusive residential property to commercial projects. The company handles every aspect of corporate activities including sourcing the right location and land for investment, developing the concept, financial modeling, as well as project, shareholder and stakeholder management (including consultants, architects and contractors), in addition to optimum project execution all the way to post-management services.

www.cayan.net