

United Cycling Lab & Store

Factsheet

Client	United Cycling
Location	Lynge, Denmark
Year	2018
Services	Retail Design & HQ Facility
Creative Director	Johannes Torpe
Project Leader	Kit Sand Ottsen
Design Team	Karolina Pajnowska, Rachel Jayne Mackay, Suguru Kobayashi, Allan Sejer, Allan Kruse
Area	1650 m <sup>2</sup>
Material	Exterior: Perforated white lacquered aluminum plates, Concrete tiles, Wooden lamellas Interior: Oak, Raw and Black steel, Concrete, Ultra-clear and Reflecting glass, Aluminium, Linoleum, Barrisol
Suppliers	Construction drawings and on site construction management in collaboration with Heede Consult. Automation solution by Sensa A/S Barrisol ceiling by Lumière Stretch Ceiling
Project Description	A modern monastery for the science of cycling. A storage facility from the 1990'ies is tranformed into a sensory retail experience and office environment. In a clinical and futuristic lab setting harmony exists between man, nature and machine. It is a place for passion, dedication and dreams.

Keywords

- Futurism, sci-fi and lab feeling
- Tight grid system across interior, exterior and landscaping
- Sharp details and precision
- Transparency, layers and transitions
- Nature and science
- The power of the product