

What makes Cap Rocat different?

“Cap Rocat is all about simple luxury and a complete lack of ostentation. We’ve looked at what’s here already: the architecture, the local products and the food - and worked with them. Having lived in Mallorca, I am very aware of its strong cultural traditions. But tradition is not about nostalgia, it’s about identity.”

.....So says Pablo Carrington of Cap Rocat, which opened in Mallorca in 2010 to immediate acclaim.

- A 19TH century military fortress – transformed into a 24 room hideaway
- On its own incredibly private peninsula – with 270 degree views of the Bay of Palma that redefine the meaning of panoramic
- Just 20 minutes from Palma Airport – but a world away
- In an environmentally protected area, with very special bird and sea life
- Awe-inspiring interiors by Antonio Obrador, known for his work for European movers and shakers - look out for bullets used as door handles and gun carriage coffee tables ...

- 25 rooms and suites – each one an oasis of comfort and calm, with private terraces and wonderful views
- The Suite del Mar – hidden away in the hotel's herb garden with uninterrupted views of the Bay of Palma from its private infinity pool and terraces.
- Simple luxury and a real sense of escape
- Local traditional fabrics, woven by hand
- Food from local organic farms on the island and home grown herbs
- Cooking classes in the old Fortress Kitchen
- Private sunset dinners at specially chosen spots overlooking the Bay
- The Sea Club – with its open-air restaurant and food cooked in a traditional Mallorcan firewood oven and grill
- Natural swimming areas around the old pier and dock
- The Fortress Swimming Pool – a spectacular infinity pool, built on top of one of the walls of the old fortress with the best views of the bay
- Spa treatments al fresco in the Mirador Treatment Suite - a dedicated spa cabana perched on a hilltop with its own secluded views over the bay of Palma
- Water-sports, cooking lessons and bicycles, for exploring
- Cap Rocat is part of the Marugal portfolio of independent, one-off hotels – in San Sebastian, Getaria, Paris and Rioja
- Original, striking and of the moment
