

Ancient Persian Mythology

"Good Thoughts, Good Words, Good Deeds.
And those are all you'll ever need

The Birth of Two Brothers

- Zarvan, the god of time, created Ahura Mazda and Ahriman after 1000 years of prayer.
- Ahriman was the fruit of his doubt, while Ahura Mazda was the result of his patience.

The Four Eras of Creation

In these eras, significant events unfold:

- The creation of the gods,
- The creation of the earth,
- The great battle,
- Finally, the resurrection.

PRODUCE OF TH
PERSIAN WORLDS

One radiant realm governed by Gods and led by the Azathoth created by Ahura Mazda
the good and the evil created by Ahriman the evil and the good created by the radiant realm by malevolent entities.

The First Era: Creation The Gods (Minoan)

- At the beginning of the world in Minoan mythology, Ahura Mazda created angels and other gods in the realm of goodness
- Ahriman creates evil angels and demons in the realm of darkness, instigating chaos and discord

The Second Era: Creation of Earth

- Ahura Mazda informs Ahriman of the existence of the realm of good by shining a stray of light to the realm of evil.
- The Ahriman notices and attacks with all his might.
- Ahura Mazda makes a contract with Ahriman that their main battle should happen in 3 thousand years
- Ahriman agrees and Ahura Mazda sends him to sleep
- Ahura Mazda begins to create the earth and all its life forms.

The Third Era: The great war

- The devils wake up Ahriman.
- The devil attacks the earth.
- A fierce battle takes place between demons and angels.
- After his attack, Ahriman seeks to return to the dark world, but Asman protects the gate.
- Demons and devils become ensnared on the ground.
- Gradually, the devils weaken and in time get defeated by the heroes (Shahnameh).

The Forth Era: the judgment day

- Finally, Ahura Mazda will come to earth and will judge people according to their deeds with his angels and will send the good to heaven and the bad to hell.
- Then Goddess Sepandarmad intercedes for the hellish people and everyone returns to earth and heaven and earth merge and the world changes and turns into the ultimate paradise

