“Metaphysical Textiles Transparencies”

Elena Kihlman designs and produces textile, accessories for interior decoration and bags. Her products are the result of an accurate study of ancient fabrics and techniques, resulting in creating a new interior atmosphere, where design combines with traditional handcrafts. This is a fixed point, a feature presents in all her projects, eclectic pieces that combine style and function. The 'aesthetic, for her are contamination, imagination, intuition and feelings, but no formal codes, no standard formula. Precisely for this reason, she tend to experience firsthand every single creation. The flexibility and the ability to meet individual need are the main characteristic of creation “Elena Kihlman Design.”

Elena Kihlman was born in Saint Petersburg, where she got her basic education and in 2002 she graduated with a Master of Art degree from the Department of Fashion and Textile at the Aalto University of Art & Design in Helsinki. After her graduation Elena founded a design studio in Helsinki, which she later moved to Rome. She designed leather wear and handbags for several Finnish and Italian companies before starting her own line, in 2005.

In 2006 she moved to Italy. Her products are distributed at international and national level and exposed in the most important Design show-rooms.

Elena established her current location and working studio in Rome since 2009. Her showroom focuses on the textile collections, a wide range of interior design items and on a selection of unique lifestyle accessories. It houses not only her creations, but is also presenting intriguing suggestions of the best Northern European designers.
