

B30 – Bezuidenhoutseweg 30

The Hague, The Netherlands

Location: Bezuidenhoutseweg 30, The Hague (NL)

Architect: KAAAN Architecten (Kees Kaan, Vincent Panhuysen, Dikkie Scipio)

Project team: Tjerk de Boer, Timo Cardol, Kevin Claus, Sebastian van Damme, Paolo Faleschini, Raluca Firicel, Cristina Gonzalo Cuairán, Walter Hoogerwerf, Marlon Jonkers, Hedwig van der Linden, Loes Martens, Marija Mateljan, Giuseppe Mazzaglia, Maurizio Papa, Ismael Planelles Naya, Christian Sluijmer, Koen van Tienen

Primary client: Central Government Real Estate Agency (Rijksvastgoedbedrijf)

Direct client: Facilicom Services Group BV

Design phase: August 2012 – April 2015

Construction phase: January 2015 - February 2017

Total floor area: 21.000 sqm

Building costs: 31.000.000 €

Contractor: Breijer Bouw & Installatie, Rotterdam

Construction advisor: Pieters Bouwtechniek, Delft

Restoration advisor: Braaksmas & Roos Architectenbureau, The Hague

Technical installations advisor: Breijer Bouw & Installatie, Rotterdam

Construction W+E installations: Breijer Bouw & Installatie, Rotterdam; Deerns, Rijswijk

Building physics, fire control and acoustics: Deerns, Rijswijk

Financial advisor: RebelGroup, Rotterdam

Lighting design: Studio Rublek, Schiphol

Mosaic design artist: Rob Birza (1962, Geldrop, NL)

Terrazzo mosaic realisation: Van der Zande Terrazzo en Mozaiek (Eric van der Zande and Marco Maarschalkerweerd)

Monumental staircase and Minister's Room lighting fixture: Jan Pauwels

Wooden furniture: 13 Speciaal, Rotterdam

Offices: Netherlands Bureau for Economic Policy Analysis (CPB), Netherlands Institute for Social Research (SCP), Netherlands Environmental Assessment Agency (PBL), Council for the Environment and Infrastructure (RLi), Dutch Data Protection Authority (Dutch DPA)

Main materials

Indoor floors and elevations: Ramon Grey, Israel (limestone)

Outside floors: Cenia, Spain (limestone)

Parquet: American Oak (wood)

Doors, window frames and fixtures: highly polished anodized aluminum