

edge NEW YORK

PRESS KIT

Rising over 1,100 feet in the air from the heart of Hudson Yards, Edge is designed to take visitors out of their comfort zone to experience New York as it has never been seen before. Edge is the highest outdoor sky deck in the Western Hemisphere extending out almost 80 feet from the 100th floor of 30 Hudson Yards.

A 52 second elevator ride brings visitors to Edge's 7,500 square foot outdoor viewing area revealing new 360-degree vantages of New York City's iconic skyline, Western New Jersey and New York State spanning over 80 miles. The sky deck includes a thrilling glass floor and nine-foot tall, boldly angled glass walls enabling visitors to lean out over Manhattan.

The 101st floor features a signature restaurant, bar and event space run by renowned hospitality group, Hospitality Group RHC, offering a one-of-a-kind culinary destination. Edge and the dining experience are scheduled to open in March 2020.

Overview

DESIGNED BY: KPF (building) | Rockwell Group (interiors)

Edge is located on the 100th floor of 30 Hudson Yards

Level 101 will feature Peak; a restaurant, bar and events space, operated by Hospitality Group RHC

Opening March 2020

Technical Details

- The observation deck stands 1,131 feet in height (345 meters), making Edge the highest outdoor sky deck in the Western Hemisphere
- The deck extends almost 80 feet out into the sky
- The elevator ride to Edge will take 52 seconds
- The deck is made up of 15 sections, each weighing between 35,000 and 100,000 pounds
- Bolted together and anchored to the East and South sides of the building, the sky deck weighs 765,000 pounds.
- Edge offers a 7,500 square foot outdoor viewing area
- The sky deck is bordered by 3,000 square feet of glass walls divided into 79 panels manufactured in Germany and finished in Italy; each panel is 9 feet tall and weighs 1,200 pounds; the glass panels sit on a 6.6-degree angle facing outwards allowing guests to lean out over the city
- In the floor of the deck is a glass floor expanding 225 square feet; this glass floor offers unprecedented views of the city below

Experience Edge

THE SKY IS NOT THE LIMIT. IT'S JUST THE BEGINNING.

Edge is a marvel of architecture, engineering, and technology with panoramic views of The City we all love. Your adventure begins as you enter into an immersive multimedia experience—before heading up to NYC's new commanding pinnacle atop the skyline. So hold your breath. Take a step. And feel the thrill at Edge.

360° NEW YORK VIEWS

Edge's unique vantage point on the western side of Manhattan lets you take in the entire skyline from one place. See all the way from the tip of Central Park down to the Statue of Liberty and beyond.

OUTDOOR SKY DECK

Leave the building and step out onto the sky deck, more than 1,100 feet up and 80 feet straight out into the air.

ANGLED GLASS WALLS

Feel the thrill of leaning out over the busy city below. The outdoor sky deck is made of frameless glass panels boldly angled outward.

THE GLASS FLOOR

Look 100 stories straight down and see the city streets directly under your feet.

SKYLINE STEPS

Get an even higher perspective from the outdoor stairs and seating area. Look out over the top the glass panels beyond the deck.

EASTERN POINT

At the edge of Edge, there's space for one person to stand alone, surrounded by glass, air, and sky. You've never felt New York like this before—or had a picture quite like it!

SIP IN THE SKY

Enjoy a glass of champagne or a handcrafted cocktail with indoor and outdoor beverage and light food service.

Hudson Yards

- Edge is located in the heart of Hudson Yards--New York City's newest neighborhood at the top of the High Line--which offers more to see, do, and explore before and after your visit. Here, there's something for everyone all in one place including: more than 100 diverse shops and culinary experiences, Vessel, The Shed, 14 acres of public plazas, gardens and groves, and the world's first Equinox Hotel.

Tickets and Reservations

- Edge will be open from 8am to 12 midnight, 365 days per year
- Tickets are available for purchase from $36 (Adult) at edgenyc.com or by visiting the box office located on Level 4 of the Shops and Restaurants at Hudson Yards. Edge will also offer a discounted ticket for New York City residents from $34 (Adult).

